

GDPR Compliance & General Data Protection Policy

Data Subject Rights: Employees and customers have the right to access, rectify, or delete their personal data (Right to be Forgotten).

Data Minimization: We collect only the minimum personal data required to perform business functions, and store it securely.

Data Retention: Personal data is retained for 7 years post-employment, after which it is automatically anonymized or destroyed.

Data Processing Agreements: All third-party vendor contracts must include a standard Data Processing Agreement (DPA) protecting user privacy.
